FOREWORD

The hearings of the Senate Select Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Field are contained in 58 volumes, or parts, starting with the first hearing on February 26, 1957, and ending with the last hearing on September 9, 1959.

This index is divided into two parts, as follows:

Part 1 is subdivided into three sections:

Section 1–A, Hearing Subjects, beginning on page 1, lists the subject matter of each series of hearings and the volume or volumes in which it is contained.

Section 1–B, the Witness Index, beginning on page 9, lists all the witnesses who testified before the committee and all persons other than witnesses who made statements to the committee in open hearings, showing the volume, page number, and date of each one's testimony.

Section 1–C, the Name Index, beginning on page 63, lists the names of all persons, corporations, business organizations, labor unions, and other entities which were named or mentioned in the hearings, showing the number of the page on which each name is mentioned. All labor unions are listed together in the name index under "Unions".

Part 2 contains the Subject Index, which is an alphabetical listing by subject matter of the testimony contained in all 58 volumes.
